

All,

I have one question for you all and that is "Do You Believe In Helping Others?"

What is your answer to that question?

If your answer is Yes then read further, BUT if your answer is no, please delete this email as soon as possible!!!

This is a very SERIOUS email and it is only meant for true people who have a heart for GIVING and GIVING from the heart and not grudgingly.

What you are about to read is true and this one really got to me and that is why I did something about it and I am continuing that effort.

I have a co-worker that has relatives, who are Christians, located in the Midwest that are going through some very hard times. I found about the relatives through our Daily Readings at my job and when I read the Prayer Request I just had to do something. I have attached all those readings from my job and you can read about the family by looking for the section that has the name Kathy Walgren and also my name. I immediately started a collection and I raised $206.00. I got a gift card with it and after the fees; this family will be receiving a gift card that has $201.00 on it. This will HELP them tremendously. I have attached the receipt from the gift card I purchased today (giftCardPurchase.pdf)

Please read below about the situation that is going on. There are small children that are in this family:

Taken from Jan 16, 2006 reading: The mother of this family was diagnosed in May with stage 4 cancer and is scheduled to have a Pep Scan this week to trace the cancer cells in her body and to see if the cancer has spread. When they did the surgery to remove the tumor and nodules in her body, they were able to get 99%, but if they had gotten any closer to the aorta, it would have killed her. They saw cancer cells in the lining of her lungs and cannot touch these except through radiation or chemo. The doctor's plan on radiation daily and chemo 3 times a week. Lori's energy is low due to the medications and surgery, they nicked the vacal cord so when Lori talks, it is a strain to get volume. In addition, the expenses are HUGH!!! Co-pays for medications are sometime $100.00, and they have to pay up front for the Chemo, as the insurance has already paid all they can for the year (2006). They need a miracle! Thank you for your prayer and assistance.

This one will be in tomorrows reading (2/7/07): The new chemo therapy is working on shrinking the cancer, but Lori is pretty sick from the treatment. The 3 pills she has to take to help with nausea cost $300.00. Steve (husband) is at his wits end as he doesn't know what he is suppose to do, he is working as hard as he can and doesn't get much sleep and feels like he is spinning his wheels. They think they are going to have to let their house go as they can't keep up with the payments as medical expenses have to come first. He said the money that Jerome is collecting is definitely a God send. A real answer to his prayers. Thank you all for the donations you have sent in. Please continue to pray for strength, courage and financial help for this family as it is a hard cross to carry.

Please PRAY for the other Prayer Requests in those readings!!!

As the reading mentioned above, the insurance ran out and they had to turn $70,000 to collections. Their church has also been helping them out by helping clean the house for them and things like that.

I just heard today that after Steve paid for some medical and some other bills, he only had $6.38 to buy food and pay for other bills. There are some other people closely involved with this and they are their children, which are a 9yr old, twins that are 6 and a 4yr old. I LOVE CHILDREN and I really don't want to see any child suffer if I can help it!!! Steve only has a job where he only gets paid from commissions.

I do not know these people, BUT God has placed it on my heart to do as much as I can to try and help this family out. I often think, if I were in this family's shoe, I sure would want someone to do something like this for me!!!

Do you want to give? I don't care if it is $1.00, because every little bit helps!!! Please give something today to help this family out!!!
